DECLARATION OF GERARD A. DEVER IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFFS' APPLICATION
FOR ATTORNEYS' FEES, EXPENSES AND
INCENTIVE AWARDS

Judge: Honorable Samuel Conti
Courtroom One, 17th Floor

1 I, Gerard A. Dever, declare as follows:

2 1. I am an attorney licensed to practice before the courts of Pennsylvania, and a
3 partner in the law firm of Fine, Kaplan and Black, RPC. I have personal knowledge of the facts
4 stated in this declaration and, if called as a witness, I could and would testify competently to them.
5 I make this declaration in support of my firm's request for attorneys' fees and reimbursement of 6 litigation expenses, as set forth in Plaintiffs' Application for Attorneys' Fees, Expenses and
7 Incentive Awards.

8 2. My firm is counsel of record in this case, and represents named plaintiff Jeffrey
9 Figone. A brief description of my firm is attached as Exhibit 1 and incorporated herein by 10 reference.

11 3. Throughout the course of this litigation, my firm kept files contemporaneously
12 documenting all time spent, including tasks performed, and expenses incurred, and transmitted
13 those reports on a regular basis to Lead Counsel. All of the time and expenses reported by my firm
14 were incurred for the benefit of the Indirect Purchaser Plaintiffs ("IPPs").

15 4. During the course of this litigation, my firm has been involved in the following tasks and 16 activities on behalf of the IPPs. All of this work was assigned and/or approved by Lead Counsel.
17 Fine Kaplan was brought into the case by lead counsel to serve as a member of lead counsel's Trial
18 Team, and took on significant responsibility in preparing the indirect CRT case for trial. Fine
19 Kaplan and the other members of the Trial Team organized and synthesized the impressive
20 discovery record assembled at lead counsel's direction during the course of the litigation to identify 21 the relevant witnesses for trial, develop an order of proof, designate trial testimony, determine
22 which witnesses should be called live, and assist in witness preparation (including those witnesses 23 outside the United States). Fine Kaplan and the other Trial Team members also selected the 24 critical documents for presentation at trial so as to establish all necessary elements of proof with 25 attention to putting on a manageable and compelling case. Fine Kaplan played an important role
26 in the pre-trial mock jury exercises, including presenting defendants' case to a mock jury, an effort
27 which assisted the Trial Team in anticipating defendants' trial strategy. Fine Kaplan took a

1 laboring oar on numerous trial related pleadings, including jury instructions, verdict form, the
2 pretrial order and motions in limine, as well as negotiations with defense counsel relating to issues
3 raised by these pleadings. Fine Kaplan lawyers also participated in summary judgment briefing, in 4 preparation of plaintiffs' expert witness (Dr. Netz), in drafting cross-examination outlines for 5 defense experts, and in coordinating with direct action plaintiffs on certain expert and trial
6 issues. The collective work of Fine Kaplan and the Trial Team – along with lead counsel's
7 demonstrated willingness to take the case to the jury – played a significant role in the successful
8 resolution of the indirect CRT case.

9 5. The schedule attached as Exhibit 2, and incorporated herein, is a detailed summary
10 of the amount of time spent by my firm's partners, attorneys and professional support staff who
11 were involved in this litigation. It does not include any time devoted to preparing this declaration
12 or otherwise pertaining to the Joint Fee Petition. The lodestar calculation is based on my firm's 13 historical billing rates in effect at the time services were performed. Exhibit 2 was prepared from 14 contemporaneous time records regularly prepared and maintained by my firm. Those records have 15 been provided to Lead Counsel and I authorize them to be submitted for inspection by the Court if 16 necessary. The hourly rates for my firm's partners, attorneys and professional support staff
17 included in Exhibit 2 were at the time the work was performed the usual and customary hourly
18 rates charged for their services in similar complex litigation.

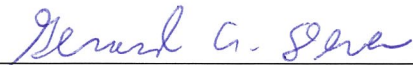

19 6. The total number of hours reasonably expended on this litigation by my firm from 20 inception to May 31, 2015 is 5,331.8 hours. The total lodestar for my firm at historical rates is 21 $2,625,672.50. The total lodestar for my firm at current rates is $2,625,672.50. Expense items are 22 billed separately and are not duplicated in my firm's lodestar.

23 7. The expenses my firm incurred in litigating this action are reflected in the books
24 and records of my firm. These books and records are prepared from expense vouchers, invoices,
25 receipts, check records and other source materials and accurately reflect the expenses incurred.
26 My firm's expense records are available for inspection by the Court if necessary.

27 8. My firm incurred a total of $54,489.52 in unreimbursed expenses, all of which were

1 reasonable and necessary for the prosecution of this litigation. All of this amount was for non-
2 common litigation expenses incurred by my firm, such as travel, meals and lodging, copying, legal
3 research, telephone, etc. A summary of those expenses by category is attached as Exhibit 3.

5 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct. Executed this 27th
6 day of July, 2015, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19107
(215) 567-6565

Fine, Kaplan and Black is a nationally recognized firm located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, which devotes its practice entirely to litigation, with particular emphasis on antitrust, class actions, complex commercial litigation, consumer protection and white collar criminal defense.

Fine, Kaplan and Black has consistently been highly ranked as one of the premier antitrust practices in Pennsylvania by the Chambers USA Client Guide. The Guide praises the Firm as an “excellent boutique firm” that is composed of “erudite and capable attorneys.” In the Guide, clients praised the Firm for its “absolutely fantastic service” and “superb attorneys.”

In addition, many of Fine, Kaplan and Black’s litigation attorneys have been named Pennsylvania Super Lawyers or Rising Stars by Philadelphia Magazine.

Since its formation in 1975, the Firm has been involved in many of the most significant antitrust and class action cases in federal and state courts. A few examples of these cases include:

This represented the first case in which the Government had rescinded an Amnesty Agreement and attempted to maintain a criminal prosecution against the parties to such an Agreement. After a four-week trial on a Motion to Dismiss the Indictment and extensive briefing by the parties, the Court found that the Government had “no reasonable basis” for revoking the Amnesty Agreement, and dismissed the indictment.

In re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation, 187 F.R.D. 465 (S.D.N.Y. 1998), was one of the country’s largest and most complex multidistrict price-fixing class actions. The Firm served as one of Plaintiffs’ Co-Lead Counsel, on behalf of a class of more than a million class members. The case was certified and ultimately settled for more than one billion dollars.

Love Terminal Partners v. City of Dallas, 527 F. Supp. 2d 538 (N.D. Tex. 2007), a complex antitrust litigation arising out of the Wright Amendment Reform Act of 2006, in which the Firm successfully defended Southwest Airlines and the Court granted its motion to dismiss the complaint.

June 2, 2004), a horizontal price-fixing class action against the major manufacturers of corrugated containers, in which the Firm was a member of Plaintiffs' Executive Committee. Settlements in the fall of 2003 resulted in a recovery in excess of $202.5 million for the benefit of the class.

Harleysville Mutual Ins. Co. v. GE Reinsurance Corp., 2002 WL 922148 (E.D. Pa. May 6, 2002), a complex contract litigation in which the Firm won summary judgment for its plaintiff client less than six months after the action was filed.

In re Providian Financial Corp. Credit Card Terms Litigation (E.D. Pa. 1999), a large, consumer fraud class action in which a member of the Firm was Plaintiffs' Co-Lead Counsel, ultimately was settled for $105 million for the benefit of the class.

In re Allegheny Health, Education & Research Foundation. The Firm represented a former executive of the Allegheny Health System as a defendant in a variety of civil proceedings in federal and state trial courts, and in a federal bankruptcy court. The Firm also represented the client in connection with a variety of government investigations concerning the financial collapse of the Allegheny Health System. See Browne v. Abdelhak, 2000 WL 1201889 (E.D. Pa. 2000).

In In re NASDAQ Market-Makers Antitrust Litigation, 187 F.R.D. 465, 474 (S.D.N.Y. 1998), the Firm served as one of Plaintiffs' Co-Lead Counsel, and the Court approved a settlement of over $1 billion, complimenting the Firm by noting that, "[i]t is difficult to conceive of better representation than the parties to this action achieved."
